

OBEY

You've prayed, you've listened and now it's time to obey.

How do we obey?

To obey means to carry out what God has asked of you, to act upon what you have heard from God. The Bible commands us in James 1:22, "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves." We are to act upon God's Word and not just to be satisfied with having heard Him only. After all, faith without action is dead and unproductive.

Who should I obey?

Well, God! Many times we need to understand this: God does not lead us astray. So it's perfectly fine to hear what He wants us to do and do it! He wants us to be His hands and feet on Earth. As long as that action doesn't lead us to sin, we will do it. It doesn't matter if it is against the nature of our personality or preferences. Just do it as long as it doesn't hurt people and it blesses others.

Sometimes when you have had a rough week. You're stressed out, you're bummed out. You could have been having a bad day. What do you do in times like those? It affects the way you hear God. You try as you want to but you just can't tune in. So instead of doing nothing, we encourage you to fall back on His Word. Romans 13:8 says that "...he who loves one another has fulfilled the law." So rest on love.

That's right, sometimes when you feel like you're not hearing from God, just love because when you love, you are obeying God. After all, God has already spoken to us when He said to love your neighbour as yourself.

Obeying God in your Revo Groups

Maybe you can do something thoughtful, something kind, something encouraging, something nice for someone else. A free meal perhaps, buy them flowers, give them a card, visit them or simply spend time with them or help them. And when you've done that, you have obeyed God's Word. It's not complicated, it's just loving your neighbour.
